

Eric Friesen is a broadcaster, writer, speaker, interviewer and consultant on music, culture, broadcasting and religion in both Canada and the United States. He was a network host and executive for both CBC Radio and Minnesota Public Radio (NPR). Eric is Chair of the Kingston WritersFest, Chair of the Advisory Committee to the Isabel Bader Centre for the Performing Arts at Queen's University, Kingston. He is formerly: Chair of the Honens International Piano Competition (Calgary), Chair of the Advisory Committee to the English Dept at the University of Waterloo, and Senior Warden of St. George's Cathedral, Kingston, among others. Eric is Honorary Governor of Roy Thomson Hall/Massey Hall, and continues to serve a wide variety of cultural organizations in Canada and abroad, including the interview host at Angela Hewitt's Trasimeno Festival in Italy. He is co-host of a book club at Collins Bay Institution, Maximum Unit in Kingston. Eric lives on Amherst Island, near Kingston, and is a Member of the Order of Canada.